Ambit Energy Ranked No. 30 in The Dallas Morning News' 2013 Top 100 Places to Work

Leading energy provider ranked by employees as top work environment in Dallas

(DALLAS) - Ambit Energy, a leading national retail energy provider based in Dallas, has been ranked No. 30 by The Dallas Morning News' Top 100 Places to Work 2013 in the Large Company category.

Ambit Energy was chosen as a Top Place to Work based on an independently conducted anonymous survey of its employees by Workplace Dynamics, The Dallas Morning News' research partner.

"We are honored to be recognized again as one of the Top 100 Places to Work in Dallas, which is a tribute to the culture and work environment we provide for all of our employees," said Jere Thompson, Jr., Co-founder and CEO for Ambit Energy. "We are appreciative of our dedicated staff for their hard work and commitment to helping us be the finest and most respected retail energy provider."

Within the past two years, Ambit Energy increased its training and career opportunities, as well as revamped its expanded West End headquarters in Dallas by adding open patios with rocking chairs, outdoor meeting areas and a game room.

"We have a great People Department," said Chris Chambless, Co-founder and Chief Marketing Officer for Ambit Energy. "They pay attention to the survey results we receive every year from our employees through the Workplace Dynamics survey and they develop strategies to improve our culture and environment."
